

Announcement of Chorakhe Noi Metropolitan Police

StationSubject: Anti-Bribery Policy for Fiscal Year 2026

Pursuant to Section 128, Paragraph One of the Organic Act on Anti-Corruption B.E. 2561 (2018), which prohibits state officials from accepting assets or any other benefits that may be calculated in monetary value from any person, except for assets or benefits permitted by law, regulations, or rules issued under legal authority, unless such acceptance is made ethically and within the criteria prescribed by the National Anti-Corruption Commission (NACC); and pursuant to the Royal Thai Police Code of Ethics B.E. 2564 (2021), Clause 2(2), requiring honesty, integrity, transparency, accountability, respect for human rights, and readiness for inspection, and Clause 2(4), emphasizing public interest over personal interest and encouraging public-mindedness and sacrifice for society; together with the National Reform Plan on Prevention and Suppression of Corruption and Misconduct, which establishes that all government agencies must declare a “No Gift Policy” prohibiting officials from accepting gifts or gratuities of any kind arising from their duties.

Therefore, in order to prevent conflicts of interest, bribery, gifts, gratuities, or other benefits that may affect official duties, Chorakhe Noi Metropolitan Police Station hereby establishes the Anti-Bribery Policy and No Gift Policy with the following details:

Objectives

1. To prevent or reduce opportunities for bribery and conflicts of interest in various forms among police officers under Chorakhe Noi Metropolitan Police Station.
2. To promote awareness among police officers in refusing all forms of gifts and gratuities related to official duties.
3. To strengthen and sustain an organizational culture of integrity and transparency within the government sector.
4. To establish measures, guidelines, and mechanisms for preventing the giving or receiving of bribes or other benefits.
5. To establish guidelines for receiving hospitality or gifts by executives and police officers in compliance with relevant laws and regulations.

6. To support and enhance operations under the National Strategy and the National Reform Plan on Prevention and Suppression of Corruption and Misconduct, including serving as part of the Integrity and Transparency Assessment (ITA) framework for public agencies.

Scope of Application

This policy applies to all police officers under the jurisdiction of Chorakhe Noi Metropolitan Police Station.

Definitions

“Bribery” means assets or any other benefits given to a person in order to induce that person to perform or refrain from performing any act in violation of their duties, whether lawful or unlawful, as desired by the bribe giver. This includes gifts, gratuities, facilitation payments, tokens of goodwill, donations, entertainment, hospitality, and similar benefits where the offer, giving, or acceptance may reasonably be considered bribery, including benefits provided after the act.

“Official Duties” means actions or duties performed by state officials in positions to which they are appointed or assigned, including acting on behalf of others, under powers and responsibilities prescribed by law.

“Supervisor” means a person with authority to direct, supervise, monitor, and inspect police officers under their command.

“Subordinate” means all police officers under Chorakhe Noi Metropolitan Police Station other than supervisors.

Measures for Policy Violations / Disciplinary Actions

1. Violations of this policy may result in disciplinary action, criminal prosecution, or other legal proceedings, including against supervisors who ignore or fail to act upon violations. Penalties may extend to dismissal from government service.

2. Lack of awareness of this policy or related laws cannot be used as an excuse for non-compliance.

3. Supervisors under Royal Thai Police Order No. 1212/1994 dated 1 October 1994 shall ensure strict compliance with this policy among subordinates.

Monitoring and Inspection Measures

1. The Superintendent of Chorakhe Noi Metropolitan Police Station shall declare the agency’s commitment to honest, transparent, and good governance administration and publicize this commitment to officers and stakeholders.

2. Supervisors shall monitor and inspect compliance among subordinates and report any violations to the Superintendent immediately.

3. Chorakhe Noi Metropolitan Police Station shall regularly review and improve implementation guidelines as appropriate.

4. The Administrative Division shall compile statistics on bribery cases, including related issues and obstacles, and report them quarterly to the Superintendent.
